“In the Beginning—The Origin of the Universe”

The eighth annual creation conference of the Society of Creation, “In the Beginning—The Origin of the Universe,” will be held at Concordia University Wisconsin, Friday and Saturday, June 5 and 6, 2020. The two keynote speakers, Dr. Russell Humphreys and Spike Psarris will each speak on various aspects of the origin of the universe. Co-founders of the Society of Creation, Dr. Gary Locklair, and Dr. Joel Heck will also present topics. Humphreys and Psarris will speak on the conference theme, while Locklair and Heck will diverge from that theme.

Dr. Humphreys will speak on “The First Four Days” and on “God’s Big Magnets in the Sky.” Spike Psarris will speak on “The Origin of the Solar System” and “Our Goldilocks Cosmos.” Dr. Locklair, Professor of Computer Science from Concordia University Wisconsin, will speak on “Positive Creation Evidences.” Dr. Heck, Professor of Theology at Concordia University Texas, will speak on “Noah’s Flood and the Age of the Earth: A Biblical Perspective” and “An Exegetical Approach to Creation.” More information about their talks, include abstracts of the topics by the two keynote speakers, is available on our website (see link below).

The schedule includes sessions on Friday and Saturday (schedule posted on website). The cost for attendance is $75.00 for the full conference, if registering before May 15, or $40 for one day. A discount is available for multiple people from the same family or church.

Join co-hosts Dr. Gary Locklair and Dr. Joel Heck for this conference.
