

Four Sample Church Bulletin Announcements—2015

On July 6-8, Concordia University Ann Arbor, Concordia University Wisconsin, and the Society of Creation will host the third creation conference in the Concordia University System under the theme “The Origin of Diverse Kinds of Life: Dinosaurs.” The conference is for everyone. For more information about the conference, visit the Society of Creation’s website at www.SocietyofCreation.org and click on the “Conferences” link. Attend either in Ann Arbor or in Mequon. Registration fee is only $55.

Do dinosaurs disprove the Bible? Are dinosaurs even mentioned in the Bible? Why do recent dinosaur finds powerfully challenge the evolutionary assumption that the Earth is billions of years old? Learn more about the creation-evolution debate by attending “The Origin of Diverse Kinds of Life: Dinosaurs,” a creation conference at Concordia University, 4090 Geddes Road, Ann Arbor, MI 48105 and simulcast to the CUW campus, July 6-8. Attend either in Ann Arbor or in Mequon. For more information, visit the Society of Creation’s website at www.SocietyofCreation.org.

Dr. Kevin Anderson and Dr. Tim Clarey will be the keynote speakers on “The Origin of Diverse Kinds of Life: Dinosaurs” at the third annual creation conference to be held at Concordia University Ann Arbor and broadcast to Concordia University Wisconsin. This three-day conference, July 6-8, will also feature Dr. Gary Locklair, a computer science professor at Concordia University Wisconsin, and Dr. Joel Heck, theology professor at Concordia University Texas. The registration fee is $55.00 per person with reduced rates for additional people from the same family or church staff. Visit their website at www.SocietyofCreation.org for more information.

If you have ever wondered how creationists explain the existence of dinosaurs from a biblical perspective, you will want to hear Tim Clarey and Kevin Anderson speak at a creation conference, “The Origin of Diverse Kinds of Life: Dinosaurs” hosted by Concordia University Ann Arbor, broadcast to Concordia University Wisconsin, and sponsored by the CUS Society of Creation. For registration, housing, schedule, and program information, visit the website www.SocietyofCreation.org and click on the “Conference” link.
